

Obituary

Died: Sunday, June 3, 2018

Salvatore A. Ciampa, 83, died peacefully at home in Winchester on June 3, 2018. A longtime West Medford resident, he was predeceased by Marie, his beloved wife of 59 years. "Sal" was a native of the North End of Boston where he graduated from Christopher Columbus High School. A graduate of Bentley College, he retired from the Jordan Marsh Company in Boston where he led the direct mail division of the advertising/accounting department. He had a second career as an auditor in the Office of The Massachusetts State Auditor under A. Joseph DeNucci. He contributed to his St. Raphael Parish of more than 50 years by running the weekly Beano games for more than a decade. He loved his Boston sports teams and enjoyed attending games of the Red Sox, Bruins, Celtics and Patriots. He was the loving father of Gail Ciampa and her husband David Buczkowski of Lexington, David Ciampa and his wife Lori of Winchester, and Nancy and her husband Kenneth McLaughlin of Winchester. He was the loving grandfather of Adam, Gregg and Devon Buczkowski, and Hilary, Molly, Megan, and Troy Ciampa. He was the loving brother of Anthony Ciampa of Woburn, and the late Frederick Champa, Grace Arena, and Humbert and Caroline Ciampa. The Funeral will be from The Cincotti Funeral Home, 421 High St., MEDFORD, on Thursday, June 7 at 9:30 a.m. with a Funeral Mass in St. Raphael's Church, 512 High St., Medford, at 11 a.m. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery in Medford. Visiting hours with the family will be Wednesday from 4 to 7 p.m. at the Cincotti Funeral Home.
